

SOCIETY OF ANIMAL

For centuries, animals, both wild and domestic, have provided endless inspiration for artists, exuding the rare grace, mystery and spontaneity that can only be found in the animal kingdom. Just in time for the Society of Animal Artists 49th annual Art and the Animal juried exhibition, Western Art Collector brings you this guide to some of the Society's top animal painters and sculptors. On these pages, read about what inspires them and how to add their work to your collection.

ROBERT GLEN
Tanzania, East Africa

Artist's Statement
My passion for the wild open spaces brought me to Ruaha National Park, Tanzania, where I work and live surrounded by the animals and birds I use as my sculpting subjects. My models, when completed, are cast in bronze in Pietrasanta, Italy.

Price Range
$3,000 - $25,000

JULIE BENDER
Georgia

Artist's Statement
Borrowing from the ancient craft of pyrography, I portray the natural world in fresh ways to express my deep admiration of wildlife. As I "paint with heat," I feel a certain parallel between the wild spirit that embodies my subjects and the distinctively exigent nature of my medium.

Price Range
$1,400 - $3,000

PATSY LINDAMOOD,
WILD THINGS
ARTWORK
Florida

Artist's Statement
Wildlife captivates me – living, breathing, active subjects that exhibit an infinite variety of colors, textures and patterns. My larger, bold and colorful pastel and colored pencil paintings seek to capture the nature and the spirit of wild things.

Price Range
$1,200 - $3,600

SALLY M. BERNER
Wisconsin

Artist's Statement
I love painting animals and what draws me to paint a particular piece is interesting light. When I saw this white Shetland pony in the snow, I just knew I had to paint her.

Price Range
$150 - $3,500

DORCAS MACCLINTOCK
Connecticut

Artist's Statement
As a naturalist and sculptor, I prefer to model from life. My subjects are animals that I have observed in the wild or come to know firsthand. Some, such as this prairie dog, have been part of my life.

Price Range
$1,500-$3,700

ANNE PEYTON
Arizona

Artist's Statement

I have always loved birds and have been attracted to them all of my life. It is a great privilege to spend time studying and painting them. I always try to show respect for my subjects and hope that the viewer will discover something that they did not know before seeing my art.

Price Range

ALETA STEWARD
Massachusetts

Artist's Statement

Numerous visits to the American Museum of Natural History in NYC awakened an early interest in science and nature. For the last 30 years, I have concentrated on painting animals and birds of all sorts, both wild and domestic. Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket are perfect for this! After becoming acquainted with a number of horses on Nantucket, I am accepting a limited number of commissions for equine portraits. I work in oil/linen or egg tempera on panel.

Price Range
$1,200 - $10,500

ROSETTA
Colorado

Artist's Statement

My sculptures depict the life force of the animal, in all of its visual splendor, rather than a realistic depiction of outward appearances. Although I keep the animal's basic form true to reality, it is my interpretation of that form, motion and inner spirit that is my art.

Price Range

KENT ULLBERG
Texas

Artist's Statement

"Mountain Majesty"
"At my Colorado studio I have the Rocky Mountains nearby, teeming with wildlife, including the iconic Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep, the Colorado state animal. I have always loved the sweeping curves of their horns, and here I'm trying to capture the majesty and quiet dignity of an old ram, while working with nature's beautiful curve-linear, abstract shapes in a fragmented form".

Price Range
$3,800
